FATHER EMERGES FROM OBIVION AND MEETS DAUGHTER AFTER A LAPSE OF FORTY YEARS

MRS. FANNIE SIMONDS
AT THE AGE OF FORTY THREE.

CHARLES W. NOELL

Secret of Why Captain Charles D. Noell Went Away and Never Wrote Is Carefully Guarded—Baby He Left Is Now Wife of Oscar W. Simonds—Reunited at Planters Hotel.

When Charles D. Noell left his home in Perryville, Perry County, Mo., forty years ago, his daughter, Fannie Noell, was 23 years old. They never met again until father and daughter, the latter now 43 years old, affectionately embraced in the lobby of the Planters Hotel yesterday afternoon.

The daughter, whom the father last saw as a child, is now the wife of Oscar W. Simonds, of No. 463 Vista avenue, employed by the Missouri Pacific as a yard foreman.

Until two weeks ago Mrs. Simonds was unaware whether her father, whom she had never remembered, was dead or alive. By family tradition she knew that he had left home when she was a child and had not been seen or heard of by the family for forty years.

For the father there was no means of recognition, but among the many guests who strolled about the corridors of the hotel the daughter was able to distinguish her father by means of a photograph of himself he had forwarded a few days ago when he emerged from oblivion and announced that he would visit St. Louis and named the lobby of the Planters hotel as the place of meeting his daughter.

Why the father left home and has these days kept a whereabouts secret, which is a family secret, which is closely guarded, as Mr. Noell's wife has long since discovered, is a matter which is now living in St. Louis.

Mr. Noell claims the right of title of "Captain." He says that in 1862 he was appointed Captain and Provost Marshal of the Third Missouri District, which comprised twenty-four counties in Missouri, with headquarters at Ironton. His appointment, he says, was made by President Lincoln.

Captain Noell says that his father was John W. Noell, who served the Third Missouri District from 1856 to 1862, when he died at Perryville, Mo. He

CASINO STRUCTURE FOR KANSAS CITY.

Two Pavilions to Be Situated on "Model Street" at World's Fair.

MANY BIDS ARE RECEIVED.

One Building to Be Used as a Clubhouse and the Other as an Exhibit Room.

Bids for the erection of the Kansas City building at the World's Fair are being received by Judge J. H. Hawthorne of the Missouri Commission. The building will form part of the Model Street displays.

Van Brunt and Howe of Kansas City, architects of the Varied Industries building, are the designers.

Nearly all the principal contractors on the Exposition grounds have turned in bids. The plans show a structure 150x70 feet. It is of the casino design, consisting of two separate pavilions, connected by a colonnade. One of the buildings will be used for a clubhouse for Kansas City visitors, and the other for an exhibit room.

In the clubhouse section will be established a bureau of information, registry office, post office, buffet, bathrooms, reading-rooms and writing-rooms and reception-rooms. It will be furnished throughout in handsome style by various Kansas City concerns and individuals.

A large map of Kansas City will occupy a position in the connecting colonnade. This map will show the sections of the city on either side of the Missouri River, and will include the manufacturing suburbs. The map is 12x14 feet, with a scale of 1 inch to 20 feet. It will be covered by plate glass and surrounded by an observation platform.

The map will be similar to the one shown by New York at the Paris Exposition. Done in water colors and ink, it brings the city into perspective, showing the boulevards, streets and steam railways, the river and water courses, the United States harbor lines, the bridges, bluffs, improved areas and all the important buildings.

Another feature of the colonnade will be ten living-picture machines, which show in daylight the same effects produced in the evening by projection machines. Moving pictures of scenes on the Kansas City boulevards, business streets and parks, in the parks and in the business districts and other industrial plants will be shown by the machines.

The building will be eleven mural paintings, each 8 feet by 12 feet, embodying historical and actual subjects of Kansas City. One of the paintings will show a view of "Petitot Lane," as Eleventh street from Main to Grand avenue is called, because the retail dry goods stores located there.

The building and exhibit is in charge of a committee appointed by the Commercial Club, the Manufacturers' Association, the Live Stock Exchange and the Real Estate Exchange. Each organization is represented by its members. E. P. Sweeney, treasurer and James Donohue, secretary.

WANTS CLAYTON STREET-CAR SERVICE CHANGED.

Judge Ferriss Asks Permission to Stop Operation of Line Through World's Fair Grounds.

Judge Franklin Ferriss, General Counsel for the Louisiana Purchase Exposition Company, yesterday filed a petition in the St. Louis County Court in Clayton, asking that the Transit Company be permitted to suspend the operation of its Clayton division through the World's Fair grounds until six months after the close of the Exposition.

He asked that the order be made conditional upon the Transit or the Suburban Railway Company operating the line from its western terminus at the Long Cabin Club, on the Clayton road, to the entrance on Pennsylvania avenue, from where the passengers are to be transferred to the Suburban cars without the payment of an additional fare.

It is said that the Exposition Company has effected an agreement between the Transit and Suburban companies, whereby a part of the tracks of the latter will be used by the former during the World's Fair, to the advantage of the architectural picture. Places were given to cer-

WILLIAM C. WHITNEY DIES UNDER INFLUENCE OF ETHER

Former Secretary of the Navy, Having Undergone One Operation for Appendicitis, Suddenly Becomes Worse and Second Operation Is Decided Upon—Death Attributed to Peritonitis and Blood Poisoning—Son and Daughter With Him at the End.

LIFE FULL OF HARD WORK AND MANY GREAT SUCCESSSES.

New York, Feb. 2.—William Collins Whitney, former Secretary of the Navy, died this afternoon at his home, No. 871 Fifth avenue, while under the influence of ether, administered preparatory to a second operation for appendicitis.

By his bedside were his son, Harry Payne Whitney, and his daughter, Dorothy Whitney, as well as Doctor William T. Bull, the chief surgeon in attendance. He was in his sixty-fourth year.

Mr. Whitney was taken ill Friday night at the performance of "Rigoletto" at the Metropolitan Opera-house, and had to leave before the opera ended.

Doctor Walter B. Jones, the Whitney family physician, was summoned, and found that the condition of the patient was such that, after consultation, an operation was decided upon and was performed by Doctor Bull.

PATIENT RALLIES.

The patient rallied so well that it was fully believed he would recover.

Mr. Whitney's condition was very grave, however, and on Sunday and Monday and at a consultation this afternoon it was concluded that the only hope for the patient lay in a second operation.

Mr. Whitney was placed under the influence of ether, but whether the operation was proceeded with is not stated.

When the physicians perceived that the patient was in danger of death, Harry Payne Whitney and Miss Dorothy Whitney were immediately notified. They hastened to the side of their father and in a few minutes he had breathed his last.

OXYGEN OF NO AVAIL.

Gygen was used, and all the skill of the physicians and surgeons brought into play to preserve the life of the distinguished patient, but all to no avail.

"Mr. Whitney died at 4 o'clock of peritonitis and blood poisoning following an operation for appendicitis.

"The interment will be made at Woodlawn at a date to be hereafter fixed, in the family plot, where are the remains of Mrs. Flora Payne Whitney, Olive Whitney and Mr. Whitney's grandchildren, Flora Page.

William Collins Whitney was born at Conway, Mass., July 5, 1841. His parents were James Scollay Whitney and Laurinda Collins.

EARLY SUCCESSSES.

Starting with little or nothing in the way of material wealth, Mr. Whitney began the hard grind of a lawyer's life in this city forty years ago. His early successes were due to the meteoric kind, but they never served to turn him from his for permission to close Forsythe boulevard during the Fair and for sixty days thereafter.

TO INSTALL JAPAN'S EXHIBIT.

Kiyoshi Sugawara Comes to Superintend Country's Display.

Kiyoshi Sugawara, director of the Japan Exhibitors' Association, arrived at the Planters Hotel yesterday. He comes to St. Louis to superintend the installation of exhibits from Japan. Mr. Sugawara is accompanied by Mrs. Sugawara and two secretaries, S. Mayekawa and Miyamatz Kaneshiro.

Before he left Japan, Mr. Sugawara was forced to reject offers of the goods offered for exhibit by the manufacturers and merchants of Japan, as the amount offered was five times as large as the space allotted would accommodate. He will look after the interests of his countrymen. He received information yesterday that the second constant of Japan's exhibit, consisting of sixty-five crates, had been shipped.

Many Ask for Alley Contracts.

Bids for the letting of fifteen brick alley improvements were opened at a meeting of the Board of Public Improvements yesterday morning. When it was learned that 172 bids had been received, Park Commissioner Robert Aull was elected in the absence of Walter Edwards, who is in England, and was compelled to read every bid in full. The contracts will be let at the next meeting of the board, and it was found that they were reasonably low in price. The Street Department will announce the lowest bidders when the figuring is completed.

ZIEGLER DARES NOT LEAVE NEW YORK.

If He Goes to Connecticut Home New Extradition Proceedings May Be Instituted.

REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

New York, Feb. 2.—William Ziegler's escape from extradition to Missouri, through the grace of Governor Odell, has left him in a decidedly awkward position. Mr. Ziegler will not, a risk, should he leave the jurisdiction of New York State, of being arrested, should the Missouri authorities continue their efforts to bring him within the jurisdiction of Missouri.

Mr. Ziegler has a country home in Connecticut and his attorneys are inclined to the belief that Attorney General Crow will be prepared to request the Governor of the New England State to extradite him, should he take up his residence there even temporarily, which he frequently does.

Mr. Ziegler's disfigurement, however, is not the only result of the decision handed down by Governor Odell yesterday. The attorneys for the baking powder manufacturers are said to be lying in wait for a factu of the State of New York of Acting Prosecuting Attorney Brown of Cole County, should he at any time visit New York. In his brief, Mr. John M. Brown, one of Mr. Ziegler's attorneys, openly charges Attorney Brown with deliberate and criminal perjury, and Mr. Brown does not hesitate to say that on his advent into this State, Brown will be instantly arrested and his indictment for perjury sought for.

CHARGE OF PERJURY.

The language used by Mr. Brown in his brief is clear. He says:

"This Prosecuting Attorney of the county of Cole made an affidavit upon which was put in motion the machinery of the Court under which Mr. Ziegler's extradition was sought. It was false as to every allegation as to Ziegler's flight. It was untrue when Mr. Ziegler was taken to the Governor of the State of Missouri, asking that this Prosecuting Attorney of the county of Cole be produced before your Excellency to repeat the oath he had made by which the machinery of the law to extradition had been set in motion. He declined to come, and on page 26 of the stenographer's minutes of the proceedings before your Excellency, it was openly conceded that he had no knowledge of the matters he swore to in this regard."

"What does this mean? We openly charged that an official of a State who had committed perjury pure and simple upon which he instituted a procedure of this nature, committed a crime of the highest grade."

"The one fact which the State of Missouri concedes it had to prove to deprive a citizen of the State of New York of his freedom and transport him to Missouri was that he had been present in that State at a certain time. Brown, the Prosecuting Attorney who is to try him, made an affidavit of that fact. Mr. Brown knew it was untrue when he made it. Even if he swore to facts as true of which he had no knowledge, it was perjury."

Mr. Brown's claim that Attorney Brown committed perjury is based on section 301 of the penal code, which says:

"An unqualified statement of that which he knows to be false."

FURTHER PROCEEDINGS.

There has been talk to-day to the effect that a civil action might be taken against Prosecuting Attorney Brown, but it is highly improbable that any such proceedings will be taken. It was also

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 2.—Assistant Attorney General Sam H. Jeffries, speaking of the Ziegler case to-night, said:

It is much easier for a woman to confide in the average man than in the average woman. She knows that the man will respect her confidences and keep them to himself. He is strong, has more experience of the world and can help the woman who needs advice. There is every reason why women should not trust their delicate constitutions in the hands of unskilled persons. It requires a thorough medical education to appreciate and understand the woman's organism. When a woman has ill and pains that she cannot bear—when life seems dark for every woman, she should confide her troubles to a physician of standing in the community, or one who has a national reputation. Certainly it would not be the part of wisdom to confide in an ignorant person without medical education simply because she was a woman. There is every reason why she should write to some great specialist, one who has made the diseases of women a specialty for a third of a century, like Dr. E. V. Pierce, founder of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y. All his correspondence is held sacredly confidential, and he gives his advice free and without charge.

So uniformly successful has Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription proven in all forms of female weakness, Profluvium, or Falling of the Womb, and Leucorrhoea, that, after curing the worst cases of these distressing and debilitating ailments, Dr. Pierce now feels fully warranted in offering to pay $500 in cash for any case of these diseases which he cannot cure.

AS OLD AS THE PYRAMIDS

That blood poison existed among the ancients has been proven beyond question. It has been traced back thousands of years, and is as old as the Pyramids. This blighting curse has been handed down from nation to nation and from individual to individual till it has spread to all parts of the world.

Contagious blood poison, as it is called in modern times, begins with a small sore or ulcer through which the virus enters the blood. This is followed by inflammation and swelling of the glands of the throat, a red eruption breaks out on the body, sores appear in the mouth and the throat becomes ulcerated, and as the disease takes a deeper hold and the blood becomes more thoroughly infected, the hair and eyebrows drop out, the skin is spotted with copper-colored spots, the bones and muscles ache, and it seems to the victim of this monster scourge there is not a sound spot in the whole body.

The horror of this awful disease can never be told. The one who contracts it suffers in body and mind, and if the poison is not eradicated transmits the taint to his children, and Contagious Blood Poison thus becomes responsible for many of the ills of childhood—Skin Eruptions, Catarrhal Troubles, Sore Eyes, Scalp Disease, White Swelling, Scrofula and others just as bad. S. S. S., the great vegetable blood purifier and tonic, has long been recognized as a radical and safe cure for Contagious Blood Poison. It counteracts the deadly virus and cleanses and purifies the diseased blood, and under its tonic effects the general health improves and soon all signs of blood poison are gone. The strong mineral remedies, Mercury and Potash, which are so often prescribed for the disease, dry up the sores, skin eruptions and all external signs, but leave the stomach and digestion ruined and the system in such condition that the disease usually returns in worse form than ever.

S. S. S. is guaranteed a purely vegetable remedy. $1.00 is offered for proof that it contains a single mineral ingredient. If you have blood poison write for our special book, describing the different stages and giving all the symptoms, with directions for treating one's self at home. Our physicians will furnish any information or advice wanted free of charge.
